

Role Profile

Role Title:	Building Control Surveyor – Degree Apprentice
Department:	Development
Role:	Throughout your degree apprenticeship you'll be working on the planning and construction phases of our building homes project supporting the team in ensuring building standards are met. You'll have clearly defined objectives linked to your degree studies to develop industry based experience whilst working onsite. You'll support the team to ensure that our new homes are safe, cost effective and built to a high standard. On a daily basis you'll be collaborating and building relationships with colleagues across the business, as well as with external contractors, designers, builders and engineers. Working closely with all stakeholders, you'll carry out site inspections to ensure developments are using quality material and are progressing in a timely and cost efficient way. In your final year you will be a competent and confident Building Control Surveyor, with a wealth of experience in the construction industry.
Reporting to:	Development Quality Manager
Education, Qualifications and Training	Minimum 5 GCSE's graded 9-4 (A to C) must include English and Mathematics. Minimum 3 A-level Grades B or above (at least one subject to be IT or Mathematics related) or equivalent qualification.
Role Specific Skills & Behaviours	Skills IT – Ability to use Microsoft Office and a range of area specific software packages. Behaviours Authentic – reliable and take pride in everything you do. Bold – confident learner and creative thinker who enjoys new challenges, with a talent for problem solving. Collaborative – brilliant communication skills and can build good working relationships.